

Joy Beyond Indescribable

Pure and glorious the Ancient of the Days
Pure and glorious the Ancient of the Days
From His eyes beam out light that give us lives
But His creatures chose not to follow and praise Him

The world beyond unimaginable
The world beyond unimaginable
His angels seek to search out His depth
In vain they did but have no findings

The joy beyond indescribable
The joy beyond indescribable
His angels seek to search out His depth
In vain they did but have no findings

The wise shall shine in Heaven forever more
The wise shall shine in Heaven forever more
But the wicked they won't they won't understand
And the Kingdom of Heaven shall have no end
